Dear Peace News Trustees,

I do not feel you have behaved well towards the former staff and former directors of Peace News. I no longer have confidence in your stewardship of the Peace News group of companies (which includes Housmans Bookshop).

In the spirit of radical nonviolence, I ask you (and your friends and partners) to step down from your directorships and other positions in Peace News and Peace News Trustees.

This is the New Year's Resolution that I would ask of you.

Peace
